

George Street South Pedestrianisation Project, Sydney

PROJECT UPDATE – JUNE 2022

Works Completed

- Devonshire Street between Chalmers Street and Elizabeth is now complete. Fencing has been removed and open to public on both sides of the tracks.
- Paving at the intersections of Thomas Street / Hay Street and George Street / Ultimo Road are now complete.

Current and Upcoming Works

- Liverpool Street cycleway kerb at George Street is scheduled to commence towards the end of June.
- Minor corner paving works at Parker Street and Hay Street to commence mid-June.
- Works on George Street (South of Rawson Place) have started and are scheduled for completion late 2022.
- Works on Ultimo Road between George Street and Thomas Street are currently under construction. South side has been paved. Works on the Northern side are progressing well involving excavation, concreting and paving.

Working Hours

- Monday to Saturday 7am to 9pm.

The following night works will be required this month:

- Infrastructure works along George Street South of Rawson.
- Works at the intersection of Elizabeth Street and Devonshire Street.

We will be in contact for the above with separate notices and via our Community Liaison Officer prior these night works taking place.
